IBEI

INSTITUT BARCELONA
D'ESTUDIS INTERNACIONALS

IBEI was established in 2004 as a postgraduate research and teaching institute. The Institute is an associate member of APSIA, the Association of Professional Schools of International Affairs. IBEI is a centre of academic excellence specialising in the field of international studies. It combines outstanding research with high-quality teaching and student-oriented services.

Master's in Public Policy

The Master's in Public Policy is a one-year, interdisciplinary degree intended to educate future professionals in the area of public policy-making. It aims to provide students with a comprehensive set of analytical skills, robust training in research methods, and a thorough understanding of key issues such as policy design, policy implementation, and policy evaluation at the international and European implementation.

This advanced full-time programme, taught in English, is tailored for individuals considering a high level career in different levels of government, in public affairs, in research divisions of business firms, and in academia.

The Master's degree is fully accredited and is jointly awarded by two renowned Barcelona universities: the Universitat de Barcelona and the Universitat Pompeu Fabra Barcelona.

The syllabus presents an innovative structure, totalling 60 ECTS credits and offering a combination of core subjects and a wide range of electives catering to the students' individual interests. The Master's in Public Policy includes three different sets of courses and a final research project:

Core courses (26 ECTS)

Economic Analysis of Governments, Politics and Public Policy Process, Methods for Policy Analysis (quantitative), Methods for Policy Analysis (qualitative), Philosophy of Public Policy.

Pathway core courses (6 ECTS)

Students are required to select a course according to their chosen pathway.

Elective courses (20 ECTS)

Students can choose from a broad choice of electives.

Final Research Project (8 ECTS)

Live and study in Barcelona

Studying at IBEI gives you the opportunity to experience life in one of the most vibrant and cosmopolitan cities in Southern Europe.

Its Mediterranean climate, with mild winters and warm summers, allows you to make the most of the unique cultural and historical identity found in its architecture, art, language and cuisine. Barcelona's comparatively low cost of living is combined with a stimulating academic environment to offer an exceptional educational experience. The city boasts an internationally renowned academic community consisting of eight universities and a network of research centres and scientific parks that provide a thriving environment for study and research.
